

TROOPSHIP DANCE
AT THE YOUNG

Manager Lake of the Alexander Young Hotel received a letter per the Alameda from Captain A. P. Berry army quartermaster on the transport Sheridan, in which he stated that the troopship was to leave San Francisco on Wednesday, January 23, and would probably arrive here on Thursday, February 2. Captain Berry accepted Manager Lake's invitation for himself and the officers and ladies traveling on the transport to attend a dance at the Alexander Young Hotel on arrival either on Wednesday or Thursday evening.

Captain Berry stated that the vessel would carry but very few soldiers, but would have a full list of cabin passengers.

The Captain has authority from the War Department for Mrs. Berry to accompany him on the round trip of the vessel. Mrs. Earnest Mead, wife of Lieutenant Mead, executive officer of the revenue cutter Bear, will also be a passenger under the chaperonage of Captain and Mrs. Berry.

The Hawaiian Government band will play at the Young Hotel on Thursday evening.

As shown by the comparative statement of Territorial Auditor Fisher, in the month ending Dec. 31, 1902, there was but one department of the government, namely the judiciary, that exceeded in that month its expenditures for the corresponding month in the previous year. That department only exceeded the 1902 expenditure by a little over eleven hundred dollars, which is accounted for by the larger number of cases disposed of. The Governor himself saved over two thousand dollars, and in the secretary's department is shown the astonishing saving of $9679.44.
